More than Dentistry. Life.

THE STORY

The Arkansas Donated Dental Services (DDS) program helps patients like Carolyn, 66, from Clark County. Living on her own in a rural area, Carolyn has made it her mission to care for the abandoned dogs that have come to her home. She does what she can to support herself by working part-time as a transcriptionist, but suffers from several physical and mental health challenges that have been detrimental to her quality of life. In addition to these problems, Carolyn's dental health had deteriorated as well. She had a broken crown and numerous cavities, which caused her severe discomfort and diminished her self-confidence. The cost of treatment, however, was beyond what she could afford. Getting by only on her part-time job's income and her Social Security benefit, she struggles to get by, and the treatment she needed seemed out of reach.

HOW DDS HELPED

This all changed when Dr. Patrick Moseley, Jr., a DDS volunteer since 2019, came to her aid. With the help of Creative Dental Arts, an Arkansas-based DDS volunteer dental lab, Dr. Moseley provided Carolyn with two new crowns, conducted two restorations, and fitted her with an amalgam. Thanks to the compassion shown by these volunteers, she received hundreds of dollars-worth-of donated dental treatment, improving her oral health, and her confidence.
